

Sunday

113c

Dear Mom,

Well this is my last weekend at Dano, and it's been an exciting one.
Friday night the boys of my group, and I went to Mr. Balko's house for the evening. We got merrily stewed. That Balko sure is a good egg.
The four of us chipped in and bought him a combination cigarette lighter a case. He sure needs one, he's always using my lighter.

We've got open post every night until Wednesday and then we're off for

New York. I still can't believe it now. What a deal.
I haven't found out any more details. We will fly from Stuart Field, about 6 miles from West Point. It'll be approximately 50 air miles from home.

In an AT-10 it will take me about 20 minutes to get to New Rochelle.

I think I'll leave about the 8th. No one knows yet.

I've got to eat now anyh. I'll be seeing you!

Give my love to Bob, and everyone at home. I love you with all my heart now.

Your devoted son

P.S. - I got 100 in A.I.!